NVOCC

Our NVOCC operations allow us to leverage the shipping volumes of importers and exporters while offering ocean transportation services at competitive rate levels. This is accomplished through involvement with industry associations, SEGURO affording access to numerous service contracts, grouping member shipping volumes together resulting in rate levels individual members are often unable to obtain on their own. The end result is a cost savings recognized by our shipper clients'. Our NVOCC services - import, export, and foreign to foreign, combined with our Freight Forwarding and Customs Brokerage services, allows complete shipment visibility from the moment a booking is in place. With NVOCC and Freight Forwarding services managed by a single point of contact coupled with our online track & trace system, you receive a level of service that's second to none. Pick up the phone today and let one of our NVOCC specialists show you how worry-free international shipping.
